Association of IT BHU Alumni (AIBA) is the nodal organisation of the alumni of Institute of Technology, Banaras Hindu University. Our Association is a non-profit organisation, and has a wide representation from our alumni - senior officials from the government, public, and private sectors, and from various industry fora.

The activities of the association centre around our efforts to improve the quality of the technical education, viz., institute-industry participation, and alumni participation in education; we also maintain a network of alumni through various events and programs.

As you may be aware, Banaras Hindu University was the first university in the country to offer integrated engineering courses, since the turn of the last century, through its colleges, viz., Benares Engineering College (BENCO), College of Technology (TECHNO) and College Mining and Metallurgy (MIN-MET), which were combined together in 1968 as Institute of Technology, Banaras Hindu University. For almost a hundred years now, BHU has been producing graduates in various engineering disciplines, and its graduates have contributed to the building up of technical infrastructure in the country post independence.

As a means to recognise the contributions of these alumni, and further the cause of technical education in the country, our association has decided to honour "Significant Contributor" every year from amongst the engineering alumni of Banaras Hindu University, on the occasion of its Annual General Body Meeting. The selection of the Significant Contributor would be through a jury comprising our own alumni in part and a group of eminent, independent personalities from the industry (Mr RP Singh, Prof. Raj Singh, Mr. MK Modi etc). This year we are co-hosting this event with European Business Group (EBG) for enhanced visibility and to promote Indo-European Trade relations. Also on this occasion we will have child Prodigy Piano Player, Abhay Goel, to enthrall the audience.

Please grace the occasion and witness the IT-BHU Alumni Award of Excellence 2007-08. The schedule of the events is given below for your reference.
